Where do we go from here and how do you securely book your private vacation in the Dolomites?

The rapid spread of the Coronavirus has not only taken its toll on public health systems, political and economic environments, and society in general, but also on us, your mountain guides. At the moment, no one can predict how this situation will play out as we approach the summer 2020. Fixed bookings are simply not possible at this particular time.

The Dolomites and the surrounding mountains are most certainly one of the most secure sites in this current environment. It is much easier to abide by social distancing rules and recommendations when we are in the mountains. However, the difficulty lies in the ability to reach us, whether it is by car, train or plane. In addition, there is the question of whether it is safer to stay in a hotel or to overnight in one of the refuge huts. For the near future, we all must avoid overcrowded sleeping rooms and large gatherings of people. When the researchers and the authorities ultimately do give us the green light that we are free to carry on our business of giving mountain tours, it will take some time for all of us to psychologically overcome our preconceived notions of social distancing. It is not a light switch that we can turn on and then off.

For this reason, we would like to point out one of the most important advantages of DISCOVERYDOLOMITES and that is the individual features of our bookings. PERSONAL PREFERENCE and FLEXIBILITY are key themes of our business and our company.

Don’t hesitate to inquire with us so that we can inform you and help you to book the individualised trip that will allow you soon to be climbing that mountain you have always dreamed about.
Covid preventive measures in summary:

- No advance deposit until we can determine with certainty that the mountain tour can take place.

- Likewise, no cancellation fee as long as the plane flight is not booked and confirmed.

- No cancellation fee with proof of sudden illness.

- Individual and personalised tour dates.

- Smaller hotels known to us with limited number of beds will be used for overnights.

- Small rooms in the mountain refuge huts will be reserved.

- If you choose, as a special added Bonus we offer to adjust daily to your wishes and capabilities as opposed to fixing the tour destinations at the beginning of your tour.

- Guaranty: should the tour for security reasons have to be cancelled or postponed, you are responsible only for the expenses incurred up to that point.

- We hope to see you, happy and healthy, very soon in our beautiful Dolomites!
